

Satellite Radio such as XM or Sirius should not be able to provide local information such as weather or traffic in their broadcasts. They promised to be national in their programming, which would not compete with the localism of commercial radio. No matter who owns commercial stations, the investment made by these owners are a commitment to bringing their local communities all the best information possible. I support any bill that will NOT allow satellite radio these broadcast privileges.